[From our Extra of yesterday.]
Arrival of the Sierra Nevada.
War dates to October 16.

The steamer Sierra Nevada arrived this morning at 10 o'clock, bringing the following dispatches:
LOUISVILLE, Oct. 9.—Early yesterday morning the guerrilla Morgan, with 3000 men, entered Frankfort. His object seems to have been mischief and the destruction of the turnpike bridge across the Kentucky river. Early this morning Dumont surprised them before they had an opportunity to destroy the bridge and completely dispersed them.

Louisville papers of October 12th says the Federals are concentrating in large force at Fort Donelson for the purpose of clearing Western and Middle Tennessee of rebels.

The rebels are still retreating in two columns toward the Cumberland river. All sorts of rumors are in circulation; one says that Kirby Smith's entire force has been captured in the vicinity of Nicholasville.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 10.—Gov. Curtin tonight received a dispatch from Chambersburg, which says that Merceburg, Pa., is occupied by Stuart's rebel cavalry to day, and they now are advancing on Chambersburg. Their force is estimated at 3,000.

10 p. m.—A Shippensburg dispatch announces the occupation of Chambersburg by the rebel advance of 100 cavalry and a piece of artillery. Gov. Curtin is pushing troops up the valley.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 13.—The latest official accounts state that the rebels have escaped. They crossed the Potomac near the mouth of the Monocacy, having marched 90 miles in 24 hours. Gen. Pleasanton's forces arrived at the river just as the rebels finished crossing. Pleasanton's forces marched 78 miles in 24 hours.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 16.—The rebel Congress, on the 9th, passed a bill, empowering the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, when the public safety required, to apply only to arrests against the Confederate Government.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 16.—The Richmond Enquirer of the 6th, thinks there is a prospect of an early peace; which conclusion is founded on the recent battles in Virginia and Maryland. Antietam, it says, was the most terrible battle of the war to the Federalists; and adds that the Emancipation proclamation was issued in anticipation of the immediate interference of other nations to afford them an apology for terminating the war.

CAIRO, Oct. 16.—The loss by the burning of the steamers Admiral and Philadelphia, yesterday, was $75,000. Several hundred shells on the former exploded, doing some damage to the houses in the town, and wounding some citizens, but none seriously.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—But little is allowed to be telegraphed in regard to the army movements in Kentucky. The rebels have three routes of retreat: a through Somerset, by the road on which Zollicoffer invaded Kentucky, last winter; the second, through Williamsburg; and the third via Cumberland Gap, which is not believed to have been made wholly impassable. At this season all these roads are in tolerable good condition, and though the rebels may succeed in carrying off most of their trains safely, Buell is still in active pursuit; and it is considered likely that within ten days an armed rebel, unless a native guerrilla, will remain in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, October 14.—The Memphis Bulletin says that the late Federal victory at Corinth has quieted all apprehensions of a rebel attack on Memphis, and believes that it will relieve all the Western towns, and allow the Federal army to enter Mississippi and open the whole region to commerce with Memphis.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 15.—It is stated that 5,000 prisoners have been captured at Perryville, Danville, and Camp Dick Robinson. The enemy are falling back rapidly to Cumberland Gap, and forced marches will be necessary to enable them to escape from Buell, who is traveling without any equipment or baggage more than is absolutely necessary.

The Nashville Union of the 9th contains an account of the breaking up of the rebel camp of Gen. Anderson at Laverne. Our loss, as far as ascertained, was 4 killed and 7 wounded. The rebel loss was 30 killed and 80 wounded. Over 300 were taken prisoners.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 16.—A number of rebels arrived from Richmond, Ky., last night. They report that Kirby Smith's army was, on the 15th, drawn up in line of battle 18 miles southeast of Richmond. Buell's main army passed through Crab Orchard at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and, if unimpeded, would be near Rock Castle river. Bragg's army is supposed to be near London.

Later advices from Perryville places our loss at 2,000 killed and wounded. The enemy are north of Perryville.

New York, Oct. 16.—The ship Brilliant, from New York to Liverpool, was captured and burned on the 3d October by the pirate Alabama. The Alabama had previously captured and burned the whaling barks Virginia and Elisha Dunbar, near the island of Flores [one of the Azores].

New York, Oct. 16.—Commodore William L. Hudson, of the Navy, died suddenly at Brooklyn, N. Y., last night.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—A dispatch from headquarters of the Potomac yesterday says that Hancock's division left this morning on the road to Charlestown. Three miles from Bolivar they came on the enemy's pickets, who retired to within half a mile of Charlestown, and formed a line of battle covering the approach to the town with artillery. Our own batteries were soon brought into position, and an artillery engagement ensued which lasted two hours, when the rebels retreated to the hills beyond the town. We lost one killed and eight wounded.

Hancock's troops entered Charlestown at noon, the enemy leaving 160 wounded behind. At 4 o'clock, we advanced and drove the enemy from the hills, and at night occupied a position two miles beyond the town. The rebel army occupies a position extending from Bunker Hill to Shenandoah. Gen. McClellan spent the night at Charlestown.

The Sheriff of Fayette county brings a report to Lexington of a fight yesterday between Lexington and Richmond, in which the rebels were utterly routed, they throwing away arms and ammunition by thousands.

Police Court.

TUESDAY, Oct. 21.

Thomas Kerr was charged by the Superintendent of Police with being a suspicious character. He had observed the prisoner skulking by some houses, between 12 and 1 o'clock yesterday morning, and upon accusing him received no satisfactory reply. The prisoner refused to give any account of himself, and when asked his name told the officer that he had been acquainted with him long enough to know. In answer to the Magistrate he said that he was a shipwright and caulker, and had worked for Mr. Laing. Nothing being known against him, he was discharged with a caution.

Edward Collis, a notorious character, was charged by Edward Walton with having maliciously damaged his property and being drunk and disorderly. The prosecutor said that the prisoner entered his office and tried to induce a person who was in there to take a drink, which he refused. As the prisoner persisted in attempting to enter behind the counter, upon which a gold specimen of 3 or 4 ounces weight was lying, the prosecutor tried to eject him. After striking at him ineffectually for some time, the prisoner deliberately broke a large square of glass with his fist, the amount of damage done being valued at $35.

The prisoner denied all knowledge of the affair, saying that he had tasted no food since Sunday morning, and that a drink which a friend gave him had doubtless made him light-headed. A very bad character was given of him by the police. Mr. Pemberton said that he had given him many cautions, and had even interested himself to provide him employment, of which opportunity he had not taken advantage. He could not pass over this offence, where property had been willfully destroyed that he was unable to pay for. He then sentenced him to a fine of £5, out of which, if paid, the amount of damage is to be handed to the complainant, in default, to suffer one month imprisonment at hard labor.

An M. D., who was locked up the previous night for being drunk and disorderly, and subsequently liberated on bail, forfeited his recognisance of £1 by failing to appear.

FIRE.—Yesterday morning some alarm was occasioned in the immediate neighborhood by the roof of a dwelling on Bond street catching fire, and a serious conflagration nearly ensued. The cause of the fire was, as usual, the defective arrangement of a stovepipe. Much credit is due to the prompt action of Mr. R. W. Fawcett, who, the moment the alarm was raised, climbed up one of the supports of the verandah, and with a bucket of water, which was handed up to him, extinguished the flames.

TEMPERANCE.—A meeting of the officers and members of the Temperance Society recently formed in this city under the auspices of the Hon. Malcolm Cameron, took place on Monday evening, and was well attended. Considerable business was transacted in the further consolidation of this much needed movement. The name of this association is "The Victoria Total Abstinence Society," and it bids fair to accomplish much good in the community.

FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA.—The steamer Enterprise, Capt. Mount, arrived from New Westminster yesterday evening, with over $100,000 in treasure, and about 200 passengers, among whom were His Excellency Gov. Douglas and suite. She also brought down a quantity of shingles and cedar pickets, manufactured in the woods near the town.

THE STEAMER.—The mail steamer Sierra Nevada, Capt. Connor, arrived yesterday morning at about 9 o'clock, from San Francisco direct, bringing 33 passengers and a large amount of freight. She left again at half-past 6 p. m. for the Columbia river, carrying away about 50 passengers.

ALLEGED ASSAULT.—Edward Lamb, a boatman, was arrested by officer De Cecil, yesterday afternoon, on a warrant, charging him with having assaulted Samuel Raymond. The case will come up in the Police Court this morning.

THE THEATRE.—The benefit of Mr. Beatty called out a very good audience yesterday evening. The standard play of "Belphegor" was produced, Mr. Beatty taking the principal character. The performance wound up with the redoubtable "Toodles."

Capt. Costello will go up to-day with the plunger industry, to ply between Saanich and Cowichan and adjacent ports. It is reported that the ferry boat on the inlet has been stolen.

BALL.—A Social Ball will be given at the Island Hotel, Government street, to-morrow evening—the first of the season. We understand the attendance will be numerous and select.

The schooner Trader sailed for Cowichan yesterday morning, with a few passengers and a cargo of provisions, feed and seeds, for the use of the settlers.

FROM PUGET SOUND.—The steamer Eliza Anderson arrived yesterday afternoon from Port Angeles with a few passengers, 72 head of cattle, 230 sheep and 2 horses.

EXPORT OF TREASURE.—The amount of gold transmitted to San Francisco yesterday by Wells, Fargo & Co. reached in the aggregate $86,651.69.

Auction.—On account of the arrival of the mail steamer P. M. Backus's sale was postponed yesterday, but will take place at 11 o'clock to-day.

The brig E. W. Seyburn of San Francisco, sailed for Victoria on the 16th inst., but came to anchor off Meigs's Wharf. She is doubtless on her way hither.

The barkentine W. B. Seranton, and the clipper brig Ocean Bird, both of San Francisco, are up for this port. The latter was advertised to sail on the 18th inst.

The clipper schooner Wm. L. Richard, son was advertised in San Francisco for freight or charter to Mazatlan.

The Victoria Daily Chronicle is the name of the new paper to be started by Messrs. Higgins and McMillan.

Summary of News.

[BY THE SIERRA NEVADA.]

LOUISVILLE, October 6.—Telegraphic communication with Bardston is re-established. The wires will keep pace with our army as it proceeds southward.

On Saturday the rebels inaugurated Richard Hannes Governor of Kentucky, at Frankfort. Bragg and Humphrey, respectively, made bitter anti-Union speeches. Kirby Smith was bitter. Buckner was expected, but was not present.

Col. Bruce, commanding at Bowling Green, yesterday, 6 miles north of Glasgow, attacked a party of rebels, killing a few and capturing several, together with 40 horses and some cattle.

St. Louis, Oct. 6.—Advices from Gen. Schofield state that he, with a powerful army, was on Saturday at Saratoga, 15 miles from Newtonia, where the rebel forces, 16,000 strong, were collected.

New York, Oct. 7.—The Tribune says that the country has yet to hear of one resignation in the army in consequence of the President's Emancipation Proclamation.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The President is thoroughly gratified with the conduct of the Army on the Upper Potomac.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—An official dispatch from Jackson, Tenn., of the 6th, says: Gen. Hurlbert and Ord came upon the enemy yesterday, and after a hard fight, having killed 800 rebels, drove them back across the Hatchie river, towards Corinth. We captured two batteries and two hundred prisoners.

Gen. Rosekrans was immediately apprised of these facts, and was directed to urge on the good work. A dispatch from him, dated Cherrala today, says he is directly routed, throwing everything away. He is following sharply. Hurlbert is also following. The rebel General Martin is reported killed. [Signed by Gen. Grant.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—It is ascertained that large supplies of cotton for European ports are obtained by way of the Rio Grande. Mexicans are engaged shipping in foreign ships. The Texas planters convey their cotton to Brownsville, whence it is clandestinely sent to the border. On the 8th September, there were 29 vessels there waiting cargo, including an English steamer which had £50,000 for the purchase of cotton.

CAIRO, Oct. 7.—As yet we can state only the general results of last week's fighting in the vicinity of Corinth. Skirmishing commenced on Tuesday, and there has been more or less fighting each day since. The rebel loss at Corinth is about 800 killed and 1,500 wounded. We have taken 1,300 prisoners at Corinth and 300 more from the Hatchie. They are constantly coming in. Gen. Ord says that on Sunday we had several hundred wounded, and probably more than the enemy. We have taken 1,000 stand of arms thrown away by the rebels in their flight. They are mostly of new English make. Our loss at Corinth is believed to be 300 killed and 1,000 wounded.

The fighting on Saturday is described as desperate to the extreme, the rebels rushing up to the mouths of the canyons, where many of them were blown to atoms. Many houses in the town were badly shattered with shot and shell. Half the rebel soldiers are captured and ragged. Prisoners say that their effective force is 55,000. This is probably an over estimate.

The rebel Gen. Rogers of Texas was killed.

Generals Ord and Veatch were slightly wounded.

St. Louis, Oct. 7.—Dispatches from headquarters bring intelligence to the effect that on Saturday morning, Gen. Schofield's army, upon the rebels at Newtonia, and after two hours fighting, the enemy broke and fled in all directions. Their force was estimated at 15,000. Our loss is trifling.

FREDERICK, Md., Oct. 7.—We learn from private sources that the recent reconnaissance shows that Gen. Lee's army is really falling back on Richmond.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The Tribune's Washington special correspondent says a deserter came into Sigel's lines yesterday, who reports a brigade of rebels between Richmond and Springfield. He also reports three divisions at Culpeper Court House, under command of Gen. Smith. There is also a large force at Gordonsville. He says Lee's army is growing every day, old regiments being filled by conscripts.

The Herald's Washington special dispatch says: Gov. Bradford and Ex-Governor Hicks of Maryland are here to-day to ask a military force to protect the agents of the State in making the enrollment for the draft. The enrollment has been completed in the State except in the southern counties of the western shore, where the secessionists have destroyed the partially completed enrollment lists, and driven the officers out of the counties. The Governor's request has been granted.

Californians at Washington offer to send 10,000 cavalry across the Plains.

Gen. Saxton, the Military Governor of the Department of the South, sails to-day for Port Royal with greatly extended powers with reference to the employment of the blacks.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 8.—On Sunday Gen. Roseau, came up to the city, and says the rebels retreated beyond Bardston, on the Lexington turnpike. Our forces captured 15 rebels, and killed and wounded several. They continued to retreat, our forces hotly pursuing at last accounts.

Citizens from Bardston estimate the rebel force recently in that vicinity at 35,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—A special Louisville dispatch says the enemy appear to be endeavoring to reach Cumberland Gap. One portion of our army is going via Lexington; others via Bardston to Lebanon. Our troops are close upon both commands, and skirmishing is continually going on.

St. Louis, Oct. 8.—The Republican says: Reliable intelligence which is regarded by military men as correct, places the military forces in Arkansas as follows: Hindman, at Austin, 15 miles north of Little Rock, with 5000 men and 1 battery; Roan, at White Sulphur Springs, 50 miles south-west of Little Rock, with 5000 men, two regiments of which are conscripts, and 1 battery; Gen. McLea, on the river, at the mouth of the Mississippi, with 5000 men, and 1 battery; Crook, at Dover, with 5000 men (mostly conscripts), Holmes, Commander-in-Chief, with 2000 men and 2 batteries, at Little Rock; McBride, at Batesville, with 2000 men, only 1500 of which are effective. Most of their cavalry force has been dismounted. At present it is not believed they have got more than 25,000 effective men in the State.

At Archdehlin, 50 miles southwest of Little Rock, the rebels manufacture munitions of war, and have removed the State papers and records there. The rebel officers boast of their intention to invade Missouri.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Gen. McClellan, in calling the attention of the officers and soldiers of the army of the Potomac to the General Order published in the army on the President's Emancipation Proclamation, says: The constitution confides to the civil authority the power of making, expounding and executing the laws. Armed forces are raised and supported simply to sustain the authority, and are to be held in strict subordination thereto. In all respects this fundamental rule of our political system is essential to the security of our republican institutions, and should be thoroughly understood and observed by every soldier. The principle upon which, and objects for which, the army shall be employed in suppressing the rebellion must be defined and determined by the civil authority, therefore the Executive is the proper and only source through which the views and orders of Government can be laid down to armies. Discussion by officers, concerning public measures determined upon by Government, is advertised to by Gen. McClellan as an evil against which it is thought advisable to guard the army. It is thought here that it is a rule, and that Mobile is the destination of the rebels, and that Mobile is the destination of the rebels, and that Mobile is the destination of the rebels.

St. Louis, Oct. 8.—Col. Rod Matheson died from wounds received at South Mountain.

Major S. S. Graham, a San Francisco politician, died at Helena, Ark.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Federal gunboats have been destroying rebel batteries down the Potomac.

CINCINNATI, October 9.—Secessionists of Hartford and Blackfoot counties collected on Monday morning, and proceeded to destroy the gunboats, the ballot-box and enrolling papers, and forced or scared the Commissioners to resign. They claimed to have 200 men, and said that they were determined to resist the draft at all hazards. A battalion of the 63d Indiana has been ordered there to enforce the law.

New York, Oct. 9.—Pensacola advices state that a portion of the mortar boat had left for Galveston and the remainder, with the gunboats, were to leave immediately. It is thought here that this is a ruse, and that Mobile is the destination of the rebels, and that Mobile is the destination of the rebels, and that Mobile is the destination of the rebels.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 7.—The Richmond Examiner of the 6th, has a despatch from Savannah of the 4th, which says that the Federals attacked our [their] batteries on St. John's Island in the 1st. After an hour's engagement they were repulsed. The Federals subsequently landed at Greenville Point in force and marched a mile to the rear of the batteries, where a fight began at 10 o'clock in the morning. No particulars were received.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 9.—At the city election yesterday, Chapman, the regular Union candidate received 8,900 votes; Dickey, the Independent Union candidate, received 1,200. The Anti-Regal Council ticket was elected with one exception.

The New York Times, of October 9, asserts that the rebels' emancipation has excited great consternation in the South.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 7.—The Richmond Examiner says that their Congress has serious business on hand at present in the subject of finance. The Revenue Bill provides that every citizen shall give to the Confederate Government one-fifth of his gross income, and receive in acknowledgment 8 per cent. bonds. The Examiner says that the rebels are in a desperate straits; and of all the taxes, the 20 cents is the most oppressive. By this project Congress risk a heavier blow on our credit than the public enemy. The condition of the rebel army is one of great destitution. In addition to their want of clothing, they are living on half ration.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—In the Rebel House of Representatives, on the 1st, resolutions for the appointment of joint committees on an address to the people of California, Oregon, and the various Territories west of the Rocky Mountains, on the expediency of establishing a league offensive and defensive between such States and Territories and the Confederate States, was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

PARKERSVILLE, Ky., Oct. 8.—Bragg attacked McCook at this place, and a rumor states the latter was captured and killed.

Later advices from Perryville places our loss at 2,000 killed and wounded. The enemy are north of Perryville.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Rumors of changes in the Cabinet and army are again in circulation. The Washington correspondence of the Post says that Banks is to succeed Stanton as Secretary of War; Halleck is to return to his old command in the West; McClellan is to succeed Halleck, and McClellan's command is to be given to Hooker.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—A reconnaissance was made on Wednesday by Gen. Stahl to Aldie, where he captured 50 or 60 rebels. There is a large force of rebel conscripts at Gordonsville, which seemed to be their main gathering place.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—General McClellan's congratulatory order to the army says: We defeated a numerous and powerful army of the enemy, forced them to retreat, and were desperately fought, and remarkable for duration and the destruction of life which attend it. The obstinate bravery of the troops of Hooker, Mansfield, and Sumner, the daring gallantry of Franklin's corps, the steady valor of Burnside's troops, present a brilliant spectacle to our countrymen, which will swell the glory of our arms and exultation.

14 guns, 33 caissons, 15,500 small arms, and 6,000 prisoners are evidence of the completeness of our triumph. The Guerrilla Morgan had entered Frankfort, Ky., with 3000; but was surprised and dispersed by Dumont.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 10.—The battle on Wednesday this side of Perryville, commenced early in the morning by an attack of the enemy on McClellan's division. The fight was confined to the artillery till about 2 o'clock, p. m. when the Federal reinforcements arrived, and a charge was made on the rebels, driving them, after hard fighting, in considerable confusion. The 1st Kentucky Cavalry, after five successive charges, succeeded in capturing two rebel batteries. Our forces, before the arrival of reinforcements, consisted of about 6,000 infantry, 8 batteries of artillery, and 250 cavalry. The rebel forces have not been estimated. There is no reliable account of the losses on either side, but it is supposed to be heavy from the large mortality among the field officers. A large ambulance train left to-day to convey the wounded to Louisville. Among the Federal killed, are Gen. Jackson and Terrill, Acting Brigadiers Webster and Little, and Lieut. Cols. Jewett and McCampbell. Col. Pope is wounded, and Gen. Roscan reported wounded.

Early yesterday morning Gen. Buell attacked Bragg's forces at Champlin Creek, in the immediate vicinity of Perryville. A short but terrific fight ensued, when the rebels broke and retreated over diverging roads southward. Our forces are close in pursuit, and it is hoped will bag the whole of the force of Gen. Gilbert's forces were in their rear and part below them.

CAIRO, Oct. 10.—Midnight.—The Federal loss at the battle of Hatchie River was 500 killed and wounded. This is no doubt larger than the rebel loss.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Intelligence received yesterday from official quarters says that the Sioux in Minnesota have ceased hostilities, and are surrendering, and that the military authorities were punishing the most prominent of the guilty parties.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 10.—A Bardston dispatch to Gen. Robinson says the rebels retreated on Harrodsburg. A battle with the Federals preciously cost the latter in killed and wounded 1500. Enemy's loss much greater.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 12.—A company of General Dumont's men captured two pieces of artillery and 150 rebels near Versailles yesterday.

The following further particulars of Wednesday's fight at Perryville have been received: The Federal force was 16,000, and the rebel force 20,000—aggregate number unknown. The Federal loss was 500 to 600 killed, 2,300 wounded, and 440 taken prisoners, the latter being paroled. The rebel loss amounted to 1,300 killed, including one general, not named and 11 colonels and lieutenant colonels. This is the number killed as admitted by Gen. Cheatham's Division Medical Director.

Gen. Dumont is at Frankfort.

Humphrey Marshall, it is reported, left Lexington on Sunday last, with a large force, and it is believed he has gone to Nicholasville.

A Lebanon despatch which seems to be authentic, says that the battle of yesterday was much greater than Wednesday's.

Lexington is now entirely rid of rebel forces. Nashville is said to be surrounded by the rebels, who are committing all manner of depredations. The Federals are on half rations, provisions being quoted at fabulous prices. The rebels are said to have captured 40 Federal foraging wagons, below Nashville, last week.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12.—A large body of Federal troops were sent to Frederick to protect government stores. It is supposed the rebels will try to capture the stores.

CINCINNATI, October 12.—A Corinth despatch to the Commercial says that Grant recalled Rosekrans from the pursuit of the enemy on the 9th. He reports the enemy desperate and demoralized incapable of doing further mischief. They abandoned and spiked 11 guns, and had all their ammunition captured. Our victory was incontestably due to the cleanness of the war. The enthusiasm of Rosekrans' army is boundless. We have 2000 prisoners, including 100 officers.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The Tribune's Harper's Ferry report of the 10th, says that notwithstanding the apparent inaction, it is believed that prompt orders have been received for one of the largest and most important movements of the war. Preparations are rapidly progressing and, within the next week or ten days the country will doubtless be gladdened with intelligence more grateful than the ancient record of "All quiet with the army of the Potomac."

The New York Herald says a letter of Beauregard to Bragg, which has been intercepted, says "the rebels are better off than the Federals have hitherto believed."

The Rappahannock is strongly picketed by the rebels; citizens not allowed to ferry.

The Times' Washington special dispatch says that the prevailing rumor is that the rebels are leaving the Potomac, and that the army of the Blue Ridge to reach the Orange and Alexandria road. This is considered as a proof that the raid into Pennsylvania is a feint to cover their retreat and obtain supplies, and distract McClellan, while they fall back on Sigel.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—The Granada Appeal of the 8th says: We have information which justifies the most gloomy conclusion. There is no doubt we are being badly punished at Corinth, and the Hatchie river, and we are fearful that the worst is not yet heard. A telegram to the Mobile papers says that out of Moore's brigade not over 450 are left.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—An immense Democratic meeting was held at the Cooper Institute last night. Horace F. Clarke presided. Speeches were made by Horatio Seymour, candidate for Governor, John W. Brown, Richard O'Gorman, and other prominent Democrats. It was estimated that over 50,000 people were present.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The Times' Harper's Ferry correspondent confirms the statement that a forward movement of the army is determined on. The Herald's Washington dispatch says that the State Department has information from Minister Adams of the arrest of parties in England for counterfeiting U. S. Treasury Notes.

The War Department has received dispatches from Gen. Pope that the Sioux was an end. Little Crow has fled with a small party to the north.

Yankton country, but a cavalry force had been sent after them. There is little doubt but that they will be given up.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 13.—Richmond papers of the 9th inst., contain accounts of the battles at Corinth, and acknowledge a loss of 5,000 killed and wounded.

BOSTON, Oct. 14.—Official orders have been issued for the draft in Massachusetts, to commence to-morrow. It will be found necessary in but few localities in the State.

Seizing cotton, of all grades, has advanced to 9 cents per pound.

The Federal loss at Corinth is estimated at 2000 killed.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 14.—The St. Paul Pioneer of the 12th says Gen. Sibley has about 2,000 [?] prisoners. The cavalry are in pursuit of the rebels. About 20 had thus far been convicted of being connected with the massacre.

A general writing in the Granada Appeal says that the crisis is upon Mississippi, and urges the State authorities not to rely longer upon the Confederate Government for protection, but throw into the field their whole available force.

Indications of a large camp were seen near Goose Creek towards the Potomac, which probably had been used by the cavalry which made the Pennsylvania raid. Scouts to-day bring information of the concentration of a large rebel force, estimated at 15,000, in that vicinity.

The Petersburg (Va.) Express has reliable intelligence that the Union forces in and around Suffolk number 35,000.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 16.—The rebels were utterly defeated yesterday, between Lexington and Richmond, Ky.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—There is considerable talk in financial circles as to the propriety of the banks refusing to lend money on gold, the object being to prevent speculation. At the Stock Exchange, to-day, a motion was made to expunge gold from the list, and the matter was referred to a committee.

The Times' Washington special says: We learn from a gentleman who arrived on Saturday a Sharpshooter, from Richmond, that there are at least 200,000 rebels between Gordonsville and Winchester. The railroad bridge between Staunton and Winchester not being rebuilt, there is much embarrassment to the rebels in transportation of their artillery and supplies. He states that the journals and aristocrats of Richmond are bitterly opposed to all overtures of peace, while the middle and lower classes favor such a policy but are intimidated into silence.
